our STORY...

THANK YOU!

Your donation helps homeless children
and their families
as they transition to sustainable independence!

Family Promise is the nation's leading organization in the fight against situational family homelessness. With sustainable independence as the goal, we serve families in crisis by providing temporary shelter, meals, mental health counseling, referral services and comprehensive case management.

Family Promise of Southeast Florida, one of more than 200 local affiliates across the country, opened its doors in 2008 to serve families in South Palm Beach County and as since expanded to meet the needs of those throughout Palm Beach and Broward Counties.

Did you know...

We depend on generous donations to directly support our programs and services such as:

- ▶ Temporary Housing
 - ▶ Mental Health Counseling
 - ▶ Educational Support
 - ▶ Employment Assistance
 - ▶ Outreach Programs
- ▶ Every year, 2.5M children experience homelessness nationally.
 - ▶ A child experiencing homelessness has 50% chance of being homeless at least once in their adult life.
 - ▶ 47% of homeless school-age children suffer from mental health issues.
 - ▶ Children who are homeless are 8-9 times more likely to repeat a grade.
 - ▶ 43% of school-age children lack transportation to attend school.
 - ▶ The poverty level for a family of 4 is $30,000 annual.

MISSION STATEMENT

We at Family Promise of Southeast Florida, believe that every child deserves a home. We empower families in making their transition from homelessness to sustainable independence.

VISION STATEMENT

By 2025, Family Promise of Southeast Florida, intends to be the transformative regional leader in ending family homelessness.

Support our Road to Independence Program

Our Road to Independence program transforms the lives of families in Palm Beach and Broward Counties who are experiencing situational homelessness by providing:

SHELTER
on a temporary basis for low-income, food-insecure families with young children who are experiencing situational homelessness or are at risk of losing their home.

STABILITY
through comprehensive case management services, including financial literacy workshops and life skills education.

SUPPORT
in the form of food/meals, counseling and basic necessities like clothing, toiletries and housewares.

90% SUCCESS!

Our Road to Independence program has a 90% success rate of families graduating to financial independence and housing stability within 90 days. It costs FPSEFL on average $10,000 to support a family of 4 during those 90-days.
